Mondial Assistance employs in France more than 1,851 people. Its activity growth is the result of a strong innovation policy in Personal Services (a dedicated platform, e-requests and e-realization of partner services, SALP approval, assistance for care-givers, cell phone tele-assistance, dependence barometer...), as well as strong growth in home and property assistance services and the development of new assistance markets in the telecom, hotel, leisure, tele-surveillance and security industries.

1 file every 2 seconds: a multitude of services

Mondial Assistance's 9,817 staff members treated a total of 13.5 million files, or 1 file every 2 seconds, in 2008. The Health and Lifecare sectors (healthcare services, personal and lifecare services, home assistance, tele-assistance, physical dependence...) represent 8% of overall activity in terms of value.

And property and other assistance activities make up 5% of Group sales.

2009 – 2015

Like many companies, Mondial Assistance is having to confront the world's major economic crisis that is disrupting markets everywhere. However, the Group's balanced geographical breakdown of activities, its distribution channels, and its diverse business lines help to noticeably attenuate the crisis' negative impact. More than ever, Mondial Assistance is maintaining its innovation driven culture and the sharing of best practices, which help increase activity growth and productivity. As a result, in 2009, Mondial Assistance is well positioned to confront the current crisis, and as the case may be, to seize growth opportunities. In this complex and unstable environment, the Group remains focused on short-term management while also preparing to build its future by defining key initiatives that will enable it to realize its strategic ambition by 2015. This ambition is anchored in the Group's core competencies, and also relies on any development opportunities that may occur thanks to the new distribution channels – Internet B2C and B2B, M-commerce, growth in emerging markets (BRIC) and also the boom in healthcare and property assistance services.
